

The Triumphal Entry

When they had approached Jerusalem and had come to Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them,

"Go into the village opposite
you, and immediately you will find a donkey
tied there and a
colt with her;
untie them and
bring them to Me."

If anyone says
anything to you,
you shall say,
'The Lord has
need of them,'
and immediately
he will send them."

This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet:
"Say to the daughter
of Zion,
'Behold your King is coming to you,
Gentle, and mounted
on a donkey,
Even on a colt, the
foal of a beast of burden.'"

The disciples went and did just as Jesus had
instructed them,
and brought the
donkey and the
colt, and laid their coats on them; and He sat on the coats.

Most of the crowd spread their coats in the road, and others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading them in the road.

The crowds going ahead of Him, and those who followed, were shouting, "Hosanna to the Son of David; Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest!"

When He had entered Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, "Who is this?" And the crowds were saying, "This is the prophet Jesus, from Nazareth in Galilee."
