

Email to Schools and Potential Participants

Calling all women who aspire to Headship or Senior Leadership positions! The 2019 Fall Women's Leadership Seminar registration is now open! This weekend, taught by a faculty of female heads of school from across the country, is designed to both equip and inspire you as an independent school leader. Whether you are ready for headship or are considering a Senior leadership position, this weekend will be one you will long remember. As many participants have said, "It was by far the best professional experience of my life."

The Seminar will be held on the campus of Columbus School for Girls in Columbus, Ohio from Friday, September 20 at 4:00 pm until Sunday, September 22 at 12:00 Noon. The Seminar limits its enrollment, and the school must be a member of The Heads Network.

Once a participant has registered and submitted the Seminar fee ($1,000.00 which includes the Seminar experience and all meals) on line, an email

Acceptance Confirmation will be sent within two weeks with additional information, including the Seminar hotel with special rate. Each participant will be responsible for making her own hotel and transportation arrangements.

Each participant will have a faculty member mentor who will meet with her during the Seminar, AND each participant will have access to The Heads Network Career Opportunity Center with senior leadership openings by member schools.

Seminar Topics Include:

- Women's Ways of Leading
- The School Culture: Balancing Multiple Constituencies
- Finance/Reading & Building Budgets
- Organizing the Board and Your Team
- Development/Fundraising
- Interviewing and Transitions mini sessions
- Paths to Leadership....Mentors Sharing their Stories

- The Search Process: The Next Steps

Registration will close when the Seminar is full and is filled on a first come basis.

Don't delay....we would love to see you at Columbus School for Girls in the Fall!
