"Recite this prayer when you wake up, and you will accomplish all your aims for the day. Recite it when you go to sleep, and you will have good dreams. Recite it before a conflict, and you will be completely victorious. Recite it when you embark on any project, and you will be successful. If you recite this prayer every day, the length of your life, your splendour, renown, and wealth will all increase, you will find perfect happiness, you will accomplish your aims exactly as you wish, all harmful actions and obscurations will be purified and all your wishes for higher realms, liberation and omniscience will be fulfilled." These are the words of the Buddha himself.

This prayer arose from the lake of Jampal Gyepé Dorjé's mind on the third day of the third month of the Fire Monkey year (1896), an auspicious time according to the configuration of planets, sun and constellations.

Then, the Main Part:

क्याच्ची। व्याच्चीन्यां वाक्ष्यां ये ज्ञानां अपाणीं त्यां त्यां

Now, we can stay in our ordinary body, or alternatively we can appear as Vajra Sarasvati; in our heart, is a white lotus with eight petals; in its center is a full moon, on which stays our own very subtle life-energy and mind, our most excellent Tutelary Deity and our Venerable Root-Lama, all three having in essence the same nature, that is symbolized by the letter A. From this A appears our very compassionate Root-Lama, having the essence of the Highest Knowledge, rising like a splendid ocean, the Spiritual Friend who rejoices the heart. He is of a white colour, with one face and two arms, ornamented with silk and thirteen types of Precious Jewels. He sits in the lotus posture; with his right hand he makes the Mudra of Supreme Generosity, and holds by the stem a lotus with eight petals, in the center of which stands a Wisdom Sword. In his left hand he holds by the stem, at the level of his heart, a blue Utpala lotus; in its anthers, that rise up in a straight way, is the Book of the Prajna Paramita. His beautiful signs and marks are so pleasing to the eye that they can be admired endlessly. In the full bloom of youth, he enjoys untainted bliss. From his body irradiate naturally lights and light rays that spread everywhere into infinite space.

May there be Auspiciousness, so that the Teachings remain in this World for a very long time!

Taken from "The king of Jewels that encompasses Everything", the sum of all the Spiritual Connections of the Perfectly pure Path within the Sole Highest Seat of Kindness, this is the Ultimate Profound Practice. This Profound Inner Offering is not very elaborate, but is easy to practice; for those who realize its supreme meaning in Goodness and Happiness, it is the Quintessential Instruction that provides Understanding through Experience. Whatever may be each individual motivation, this is like the Supreme Master of them all; visualizing the achievement of your respective intentions, commit yourself to this Practice, O Fortunate Ones!

The Supreme Vajra-Holder having taken him under his Compassionate Protection, Jamyang Nampar Gyelwa wrote these Words as they appeared. Auspiciousness! Virtue! Virtue! Virtue!

The Noble King of the Prayers Aspiring to the Deeds of the Excellent (or the Deeds of Samantabhadra) is completed.

Note: The King of Noble Prayers Aspiring to the Deeds of the Excellent (Tib., 'Phags-Pa bZang-Po sPyod-Pa'i sMon-Lam Gyi rGyal-Po) comes from the Gandhavyuha (Tib., sDong-Po bKod-Pa or sDong-Pos brGyan-Pa) of Avatamsaka-sutra (Tib., mDo-sDe Phal-Bo-Ch'e) section of Kajur. bZang-Po sPyod-Pa (Skt., bhadracarya) has been translated here as "the Deeds of the Excellent". However it has two meanings. First, as this text is an aspiration and training to perfect the excellent deeds such as "the six perfections", it has been interpreted and translated as "the Deeds of the Excellent". Second, as this text was uttered by Samantabhadra (Tib., Kun-Tu bZang-Po) Bodhisattva to Sudhana (Tib., gZhon-Nu Nor-bZang) and as the essence of this text is to bring the trainee into the enlightened deeds, trainings and virtues of Samantabhadra Bodhisattva, it has been interpreted as "the Deeds of Samantabhadra [the Deeds of the Universally Excellent]". I have followed the first meaning except where the Tibetan version of the text clearly states otherwise in particular lines.

Translated by Tulku Thondup and edited by Harold Talbott with the assistance of Lydia Segal, Toni Kenyon and David Dvore according to 'Phags-Pa bZang-Po sPyod-Pa'i sMon-Lam Gyi 'Grel-Ch'ung 'Phags-mCh'og rNams-Kyi rNam-Par Thar-Pa mTha'-Yas La 'Jug-Pa'i sGo, a commentary written by Lo-Ch'en Dharmashri (1654-1717) of sMin-Grol gLing and also 'Phags-Pa bZang Po sPyod-Pa'i Tshig-Don Gyi 'Grel-Ba Legs-bShad Kun-Las bTus-Pa, a commentary written by Grags-Pa rGyal-mTshan (a disciple of Khentse'i Wangpo). GE LEK NANG WE SA SUM KHYAB PAR CHOK may the Excellent Virtue shine brightly and fill the totality of the three Worlds!

In the Center of this Land, in the Vajra Seat of Bodh-Gaya, ornamented with the Tree of Enlightenment, this Prayer was pronounced by the peerless Ngawang Lodro in front of the effigy of the Tathagata. May the Victors and their Spiritual Sons give us their Blessing, so that we can practice it exactly as it is!

Recorded on tape, it was spread in a meritorious way, with great respect, by his disciples, and then it was written down; may Virtue prevail!

On the 17th year of the Iron Horse, on the 10th day of the 9th month.
