

OPENING OUR EYES TO IMPLICIT BIAS

Training for the SSW Community

What is Implicit Bias and Why Should You Care?

Implicit bias refers to attitudes, stereotypes and beliefs that affect our understanding, actions and decisions in an unconscious manner. Although unintentional, implicit bias can impact how we judge and treat others based on characteristics such as gender, race, ethnicity, religion, age and appearance.

Facilitated by: Russell McClain, JD

Associate Professor and Associate Dean for Diversity and Inclusion at the University of Maryland Carey School of Law

Join in the conversation and become a part of the solution.

Save the Date!

Friday, 3/29/19

SSW Room 2E02

Training: 9:00 to noon

Focus Groups: 1:00 – 4:00

Open to Faculty, Staff and Students

Lunch will be provided

More details and registration
information to follow

Sponsored by the SSW Diversity and
Anti-Oppression
Committee