FACILITATOR BIOGRAPHIES

REGINA SHANDS STOLTZFUS currently teaches at Goshen College in the Peace, Justice Conflict Studies (PJCS) and Bible, Religion and Philosophy (BRP) departments. Her courses include Race, Class and Ethnic Relations, Personal Violence and Healing, Spiritual Path of the Peacemaker, and Transforming Conflict and Violence. Regina is co-founder of the Roots of Justice Anti-Oppression program (formerly Damascus Road) and continues as a core trainer with Roots of Justice.

MATT GUYN

is director of social change organizing with One Earth Peace, where he works with community and faith groups to develop values, skills, and plans for proactive change efforts. He is also a part of Training for Change, a social action training center in Philadelphia. TFC's "direction education" approach focuses on tapping the wisdom that already exists in people and groups to help build powerful action. He is co-founder of the Kingian Nonviolence Coordinating Committee, and with that team he runs online leadership development programs for church groups, community leaders, and social change activists.

GOALS OF THE CONFERENCE

- Examine how power and privilege affects our individual and corporate lives
- Analyze how power operates within the church
- Learn new ways to use power to further nonviolent change
- Share experiences of liberation through storytelling, worship and conversation
