

Memoir for Me

capture a life story

May Updates: A New Look!

I've revamped the newsletter and hope you like the new look! Thanks for being continued supporters. I couldn't do it without you!

From the Blog: Serenity Now

God grant me the serenity...

I'm in a terrible mood. It's 9:05 AM and there is a never-ending line of cars between me and the meeting I'm supposed to be sitting in-the one that started 5 minutes ago. I'm fired up and blaming the guy in the Civic ahead of me, the one who's riding his brake light all the way down Lawrence Avenue.

Read More

Capture Your Life Story A Memoir Writing Workshop

Spend an hour reflecting, writing and sharing with others. It's cheaper than therapy!

Sundays in June, 4-5pm
$15 per class or $50 for whole series
Portage Grounds
5501 W. Irving Park
All writing skills welcome

Email me to RSVP

No judgements, procrastinators!

Need a last minute gift for mom? Give a certificate from Memoir for Me for a gift that lasts much longer than flowers.

"It is a stunning and touching gift that is literally priceless! I would highly recommend Memoir for Me to anyone looking to preserve family history and invaluable memories."

- Mary Pat

Buy Gift Certificate Here

Don't Forget Dad!

Father's Day is just around the corner! Let Memoir for Me create a special book just for Dad or Grandpa.

It will be the best gift he's ever received. Guaranteed!

Featured Story: Tom Dugan

Thomas Francis Dugan has accomplished great things in his life. He has served 18 years as CFO of one of the largest resort developer in the world. He was voted top executive in the Orlando area in 2014. He is professional to the point of persnickety, and has an enviable wardrobe and shoe collection.

"He is extremely put together," said his daughter Jen. "He's known for his fashion sense and even has the nickname of CFO: Chief Fashion Officer."

But to his family, friends, and coworkers, Tom is much more than success and Ferragamo shoes. He's giving to the point of insanity. He's passionate about the finer things in life, mainly golf, red wine, travel, and music. And he's the best dad, stepdad, and grandfather a kid could ask for.

Read More Stories

Thanks for reading! See you next month. - Nora

Memoir for Me | nora@memoirforme.com | memoirforme.com

STAY CONNECTED:

