From the Blog: On Loss

Grief is a natural part of life, but it doesn't lessen the impact that these moments have on us. This year has brought many great things, but also moments of sadness that have brought me to my knees.

In Lighter News... A New Partnership!

Memoir for Me is thrilled to announce a new collaboration with Chicago's own TK Photography to elevate photo books to the next level! Combine the photographic expertise of TK with the storytelling experts at Memoir for Me and you have a gift that's truly priceless.

Let us tell the story of your baby's first year!
Let us capture all the funny things your toddler says!

Photos only tell half the story. A book from TK and Memoir for Me can document the hilarious highs and humbling lows that a child can bring.

Several packages are available! Learn More

Sieze the Book, Sieze the Pen!

The Northwest Side is lucky to have a pop-up used bookstore, Carpe Librum (4047 N. Milwaukee) in the Portage Park neighborhood. If you haven't checked them out, get in there before they are gone along with our summer! Books, movies and more all under $5 and proceeds go to nonprofit Turning the Page.

I'll be hosting my next memoir writing workshop here! Join me on Wednesday, August 10, from 2-3pm.

Only $15/per person. Email me to RSVP.

Meet Another Northwest Side Hero of 2016!

Below is the second of a series of stories on neighborhood heroes nominated by people like you! Stay tuned for more special stories on these outstanding citizens.

Tai Goodrich

Tai Goodrich is a loving wife, mom of three, and entrepreneur here in Jefferson Park. Her unique business was born out of personal experience and seeing the same struggle in the women around her.

"I was a stay at home mom. My husband, kids, and home took priority. I started feeling bad about myself and didn't feel confident."

Tai has always had a knack for hair and makeup and styled her friends and family. While working and talking with them, she noticed she wasn't alone in her struggles. Read More

Thanks for reading! See you next month. - Nora
