

JRYAN

JRYAN is an 18 year old singer-songwriter and Pop recording artist from San Antonio, TX. JRYAN's rise started on the Hit Reality Show, 'The X Factor USA' in 2013, where his audition received him 4 "yes's" from all four judges to include Simon Cowell. After finishing the competition in the top 40 of the boys category, JRYAN began touring the country with "The ROYOL Tour" (Ruler Of Your Own Life), his self owned national school concert/anti-bullying tour, where he's performed to over 2 million pre-teens and teens across the country.

In addition to being a captivating performer, his ability to communicate and relate to his generation has built him a following of thousands of die-hard fans, self named "ROYOLTY". His appeal on social media is giant, as he has a following of over 55k fans across the country. He uses his platform to encourage others to follow their dreams and stay working towards their goals.

An accomplished vocalist, writer and musician, JRYAN never stops improving. He recently worked with Double Grammy Award Winning Producer, Andrew Lane, to create his new "99" EP, And is currently working on a new project, where a majority of the songs are co produced by JRYAN himself. "I want to learn a little bit about everything, that's how you stay around in the music industry" says JRYAN.

There is no denying JRYANs passion for his craft when watching a live performance, listening to his music, or identifying to the lyrics of one of his original works. His star is surely on the rise.
