Upcoming Elephantopia

Events

World Elephant Day: August 12, 2018

Board members will be hosting events to celebrate World Elephant Day. Join us in:

GILBERT, ARIZONA: Sunday, August 12th at 2pm, Painting with a Twist in Gilbert, Arizona. The cost is $35 and 50% of proceeds will be donated to Elephantopia's fund for Kavala. We will be painting a beautiful picture of a dancing elephant (pictured right) and the event will close with a special guest presentation by founder and director of Elephantopia, Elizabeth Schrank. You can sign up for the event HERE

HOUSTON, TEXAS: In Houston, where Elephantopia successfully supported the Global March for Elephants and where the Mayor signed a proclamation that October 4 be "Elephants Day," we will be hosting an awareness and fundraising event at Axelrad. Join board member Janelle Hedges for an afternoon of drinks and discussions about elephants, the ivory trade and ways you can get involved to help save elephants and build community in Zambia. Details about the the event can be found HERE

ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA: Join board president Drusti Naik in Alexandria for an afternoon of wine tasting paired with Indian food and a chance to learn more about Elephantopia. The event will take place at Unwined in Alexandria, Virginia. Besides wonderful South African wines for tasting, there will be Indian food appetizers from Dishes of India Indian Restaurant paired with hot sauce samples from Mago Hot Sauces, finished off with elephant cupcakes as dessert prepared by Hollin Hall Weddings and Events. The event is free of charge, donations welcomed. Details about the event can be found HERE.

GET INVOLVED WHERE-EVER YOU ARE: If you don't live near any of our scheduled events and activities, you can still support Kavala and other orphaned elephant victims of the ivory trade by donating to our Crowdrise fundraising to raise $1,200USD by August 12.
