

June 2018

Congratulations on being selected to the Oakwood Soccer Club for 2018-19 season.

Your commitment is being counted on as a valuable team member. The Oakwood philosophy is one that fosters hard work, earned achievements, and loyalty. We provide well-planned programs that meet our player's needs! Each team will have a balanced schedule of appropriate matches and trainings (min. of 3 weekly) in line with their respective age group. Our expertise is providing a graduated training load that is just right for the player to reach optimal development.

We are a non-profit youth club, our dues provide unsurpassed value in comparison to others in the region. The dues are subsidized through sponsorships and club-wide fund-raising efforts.

Please complete the attached the Commitment letter and medical form, scan and return via email to Betzi Derella; (Boys) boysreg@oakwoodsoccer.com or (Girls) girlsreg@oakwoodsoccer.com.

Also attached are the club dues structure and payment instruction.

The first payment along with the commitment letter & medical form are due June 15 or upon selection.

The last page contains information on our summer camp registration and discount for current Oakwood players. All players are strongly urged to participate in our camps as outlined in the letter.

Thank you for being part of Oakwood,
Rick Derella,

2018-2019 Oakwood Commitment Letter

The Oakwood Soccer Club member policies (read below) must be adhered to by all players & parents for the seasonal year 2018-19 to remain in "Good Standing" (This form must be completed on a yearly basis)

- I will meet my financial obligations on time and provide a credit card number to guarantee the payment schedule below. The Oakwood Soccer Club is a non-profit youth organization and it is required to pay many fees up front such as: player registrations, league, tournament, and many other necessary operational costs.
The financial status of players sustaining a year ending injury will be dealt with on an individual basis.
- U12 & above, players may not participate in any soccer activity (outside of the Oakwood Soccer Club) including club tryouts, training centers, friendly games, tournaments, team training, id camps & MLS RDS without the prior approval of the Oakwood Soccer Club, for the entire seasonal year August 15, 2018-June 15, 2019. Please communicate, in advance, with your Oakwood coach. If not, this will jeopardize your placement and is considered a very serious breach of commitment.
- For players U11 & below, advance discussion & permission is still required but these cases will be treated with greater latitude.
- Club-wide raffle each player must sell a minimum of one raffle book of 20 tickets. Details to follow including incentives for the top sellers. Volunteer for min. 1-2-hour shift at OPI Memorial Weekend.

Each parent must sign this Club Letter of Commitment for the seasonal year.
