

The Women in International Law Network, in collaboration with ICC and GQUAL, invite you to a mock debate on

GENDER QUOTAS AND TARGETS: INNOVATIVE OR INEFFECTIVE?

Adjudicated by ICC President Silvia Fernández, First Vice-President Joyce Aluoch and Judge Christine Van den Wyngaert.

With the following speakers:

Enrique Eduardo Rodríguez Veltz,
Ambassador of Bolivia to the Kingdom of the Netherlands

Laurel Fletcher,
Director of the University of California, Berkeley School of Law International Human Rights Law Clinic

Karim A. A. Khan QC,
President of the International Criminal Court Bar Association

Gabrielle McIntyre,
Chef de Cabinet of the UN Mechanism for International Criminal Tribunals

TUESDAY 3 OCTOBER, 13:00-15:00

at the Press Room, International Criminal Court, Oude Waalsdorperweg 10, 2597 AK Den Haag

Space is limited and RSVPs are required for security purposes and entry. Please reply by 29 September to: queguiner@un.org with your full name, position and organisation.

Board of the WIL Network

The Women in International Law (WIL) Network is an informal network for mid-level to senior female officials, experts, advisers and academics working in international law in the Netherlands. It was established in 2017 by legal advisers from the Embassies of Australia, Austria, Canada, Israel, Switzerland, the Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and the ICTY Chef de Cabinet.

Join our LinkedIn group and use #WILnetwork

